

ASTRONOMY (ASTR)

ASTR 101 Introduction to Astronomy (5 Credits)

From artists to scientists to explorers, the night sky fascinates and inspires. Using images obtained from Earth-bound telescopes and spacecraft, students in this course examine celestial objects and investigate the physical nature of the universe. Through research, simulation and an investigation of space exploration initiatives, students obtain a theoretical and factual foundation for the study of astronomy.

Attributes: Natural Sciences