

SCHOOL OF ANIMATION AND MOTION (SANM)

SANM 560 Collaborative Experiences in the School of Animation and Motion (5 Credits)

Students from a variety of disciplines within the School of Animation and Motion work as a team to research, conceptualize, and develop creative solutions for current design challenges. Specific projects vary from quarter to quarter. [This course may be taken up to three times for credit.]

Attributes: Business-focused elective; Studio Elective Requirement

SANM 748 School of Animation and Motion M.A. Final Project (5 Credits)

Upon completing the M.A. program, students in animation, motion media, and visual effects showcase their professional expertise through a comprehensive final project. This project involves the proposal, development, and execution of a body of work that is incorporated into a professional reel.

Prerequisite(s): minimum score of 5 in 'Graduate Prerequisite Test'.

Attributes: Major Requirement